

Resume of:
Kazuhiko Kocho

4642 Coralwood Circle, Carlsbad, CA 92008
Phone/Fax: (760) 720-4943 E-mail: kazkocho@sdjms.com

Objective

To provide value to international businesses as a bilingual, multi-tasking person of diligence, with an ability to handle various matters including those related to legal, accounting and technical fields.

Business Experiences

1994-Today: A freelance translator, purchasing agent and business advisor in Carlsbad, California, dba San Diego - Japan Marketing Services.

1992-1994: Ogawa Realty & Investment Group (Gardena, California). I sold and leased residential and commercial properties as a California salesperson (Realtor® Associate).

1989-1992: OTAS Development, Inc. (Torrance, California; OTAS was a fully-owned subsidiary of Nissei Tatemono) I was its General Manager in charge of feasibility study, due diligence, contract negotiation and on-going reports of residential real estate development projects and financial reporting of the company.

1986-1989: Nissei Tatemono Co., Ltd. (Tokyo, Japan). I was in charge of collecting information and feasibility study of overseas real estate investment projects.

1984-1986: TEAC Corporation (Tokyo, Japan). I was in charge of sales of semi-professional and consumer audio products to Europe.

1981-1984: Asahi Corporation (Tokyo, Japan; currently CCP Co., Ltd.). I was in charge of purchasing of parts and materials for radio controlled toys in Japan, shipping them to factories in Hong Kong and Singapore and sales to U.S. and European OEM's.

Education

1977: Graduated Nishi Senior High School, Tokyo, Japan

1981: Graduated Waseda University and received a bachelor degree in Japanese Laws.